HITCHCOCK HIS ASSAILED

Unfairness Charge in Senate Fight.

Claim Caucus Call is Unjust to Underwood's Chances for Leadership.

Minority Chief's Selection will Have Direct Bearing on the Treaty.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Whether Senator Hitchcock shall remain in charge of the treaty in the Senate for the administration will be settled at the Democratic caucus Saturday night. Action in calling the caucus for that time is bitterly assailed by many of the supporters of Senator Underwood of Alabama for that position. They charge the Senator from Nebraska with waiting until many of the friends of the southern candidate were away from Washington and calling the caucus at a time when his own adherents were more in evidence. The vote will be very close and friends of Senator Underwood are seeking to have the vote delayed. Should Senator Underwood be elected it is probable that the Democrats in the Senate would furnish enough votes to promptly ratify the treaty with the reservations slightly modified. This action, in the event of Mr. Underwood's selection would come between the fifth and fifteenth of January, according to his friends. Should Senator Hitchcock succeed the late Senator Martin as minority leader it is expected that more time would be required and a compromise on the treaty less easily secured.

IS HITCHCOCK SURE?

The action of Senator Hitchcock, who now is vice-chairman of the Democratic conference, in issuing today's call was taken by his friends to indicate that he feels certain of having enough pledged votes to insure his selection although a considerable number of Democratic Senators are not in the city.

The minority leadership contest, according to Democratic Senators, has considerable bearing on the Versailles treaty controversy, and particularly its immediate outcome. Senators Hitchcock and Underwood have differed regarding future procedure, the former opposing and the latter agreeing to accept as a last alternative the plan of Senator Knox, Republican, of Pennsylvania, to ratify the peace terms of the treaty, excepting the League of Nations.

Some of Senator Underwood's friends are outspoken in criticising Senator Hitchcock's call.

"It's an outrage," said Senator Harrison of Mississippi, who has been active in behalf of the Alabama

LODGE FOR CHAIRMAN.

Republican Choice for Convention.

Senate Chairman of Foreign Relations will Wield the Gavel in 1920.

Hiram Johnson Home with an "Important if True" Treaty Story.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Tentative plans have been made to have Senator Lodge of Massachusetts as temporary and permanent chairman of the Republican National Convention. There has been some talk among the leaders of former Senator Elihu Root for temporary chairman, but it is understood that the plan of having one man for both places, first issued in 1908, will be continued in 1920.

HIRAM IS COCKSURE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 18.—Hiram Johnson on his arrival tonight from Washington to spend the holidays with his family, declared an overwhelming majority among Republican Senators favored a resolution that a state of peace existed. The only opposition, he said, was from administration Democrats and League of Nations advocates.

Peace exists as a fact, and Congress ought to have the courage to declare it, according to Johnson.

"Our exports to Germany are tremendous," he declared, "and there is no foundation for the claim that failure to ratify the treaty entails great injury to the United States.

"The nations of Europe, according to press dispatches, are not opposed to the treaty reservations drawn up in the Senate, and if these dispatches be true, the President is asking more for Europe than Europe asks for itself."

People in the East were gradually coming to understand the California view of the Japanese situation, he said, through exposure of Japanese propaganda and the Shantung incident.

Senator Johnson was welcomed at the ferry by Mayor Rolph and other city officials, and sirens were blown to announce his home-coming.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 18.—United States Senator Johnson, who announced last week he would seek the Republican nomination for President, was greeted by friends in Sacramento this afternoon at the Southern Pacific station when the Overland Limited paused here on its way to San Francisco.

Senator Johnson said he had come to California for the holidays. He reaffirmed announcement of his decision to campaign throughout the United States for the nomination for President.

"I am sure this is a Republican year," he said.

JOHNSON LOSES CHAMBERS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 18.—State Controller Chambers, who is at his home recovering from a serious attack of pneumonia, today resigned as president of the Hiram Johnson for President Club No. 1. He also resigned as chairman of the executive committee of the California Oriental Exclusion League.

Chambers said that in resigning these offices he acted upon the advice of his physicians, who informed him he must give up all outside work for at least four months. In his resignation to the Oriental League, Chambers said:

"In my judgment, the Japanese problem is not only the most serious issue confronting California and the Pacific Slope today, but also holds within itself the greatest danger to the future of this country and the people of the world. The time to act is now, not only that we may prepare ourselves for future contingencies, but by such preparation probably prevent these contingencies from arising. I wish the association every success in its patriotic undertaking."

McGEE OUT FOR WOOD.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 18.—Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, candidate for the Republican nomination for President, will make a fight for the California Republican delegation to the national convention.

This became known here today when John A. McGee, of San Francisco, formerly a commander in the navy, and Governor of Guam during the war, visited the Secretary of State's office to get information relative to placing delegates for Gen. Wood on the ballot at the Presidential primaries next May.

Although he denied that he was here at the direction of Gen. Wood McGee admitted he is a personal friend of the general, and was working in the interest of his campaign for President.

"I've run across one of Hiram Johnson's messages in which he tried to break up the Republican party," he said; "and I believe the people should be reminded of this fact."

PACKERS IN SURRENDER

Abandon Control of All "Side Lines."

Compromise Effected on Eve of the Government's Anti-Trust Prosecution.

Palmer Claims Victory will Mean Reduction in High Cost of Living.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The government's anti-trust suit against the great meat packers, begun at President Wilson's direction last summer, as part of the fight on the high cost of living, has been compromised under an agreement by which the packers will confine themselves hereafter to the meat and provision business.

An injunction decree, to which the packers have acceded, will be entered in the Federal courts to make the agreement binding. Under its terms the big five—Swift, Armour, Morris, Wilson and Cudahy—have agreed to divorce their meat packing industries from their other commercial activities and to sell their holdings in public stockyards and their interests in stockyard railroads, terminals, market newspapers, and similar "side lines."

Two years are given to comply with the decree, which affects eighty-seven corporations and forty-nine individuals.

BREAKS CONTROL.

"In general," said Atty.-Gen. Palmer's official announcement tonight, "this decree prevents the defendants from exercising any further control over the marketing of live stock. It forever prevents them from any control over the retailing of meat products. It eliminates them from the field of meat substitutes, with the exception of eggs, butter, poultry and cheese, which are left for future consideration and action; and therefore the price of meat is within the control of the people themselves. It places the conduct of these great aggregations of capital immediately under the eye of a Federal court with references to their business practices.

"But, greater than all, it establishes the principle that no group of men, no matter how powerful, can ever attempt to control the food table of the American people or any one of the necessities or component parts of it.

WAR BOARD IS ACCUSED

Scandal in Housing Corporation.

Senatorial Report Charges Inefficiency, Laxness and Financial Loss.

Allegation that Architects Received Excessive "Overhead" Sums.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Inefficiency, carelessness and disregard of the provisions of the act under which it operated were charged against the United States Housing Corporation by the Senate Public Buildings and Grounds Investigating Sub-committee today in a report recommending steps be taken to recover thousands of dollars alleged to have been expended improperly by the corporation.

Mismanagement by the corporation, the report as submitted to the Senate charged, resulted in its failure to have ready for occupancy a single building until almost two months after the armistice was signed, or eight months after the passage of the appropriation act.

Although citing specific expenditures sufficiently grave to warrant the government in entering civil suits for restitution, the report expresses the opinion that in most of these cases persons who profited will restore voluntarily the alleged unearned portion.

"OVERHEAD" CHARGES.

Other recommendations provide that architects who, it is charged, were paid excessively for "overhead"

LAWMAKERS IN POTSDAM UNDER ROYALTY'S SPELL SCORED BY SOCIALISTS

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, Dec. 18.—The German national congress in the Potsdam district developed into a monarchist orgy, according to Vorwaerts. Telegrams of greeting were dispatched to "their majesties at Amerongen." The chairman of the conference said:

"Our royal house towers so high above all the princely houses of the world that it would be difficult further to spread knowledge of the Hohenzollern character by word of mouth."

Commenting on this statement, Vorwaerts characterizes the former German Emperor as "one of the greatest political fools in the world's history" and refers to the former Crown Prince as "a superficial youth of coarse mind, a sporting dandy and in other respects totally incapable."

"He invented the cuff link," adds Vorwaerts, and sums up by saying:

"This is, briefly, the character of the towering princely house."

GERMANS IN TRADE PLOT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Japan has entered into no negotiations with Mexico looking to the acquisition of special privileges or territory in that country, the State Department was informed today by Mr. Shidehara, the Japanese Ambassador.

He said that intimations to the effect conveyed in a recent statement by Chairman Fall of the Senate committee investigating Mexican affairs was believed to have been based upon misinformation deliberately spread by German agencies which were unscrupulously striving to prevent the displacement of German trade with Mexico by American firms.

The Japanese Ambassador was said to have felt it necessary to place on record a denial of the accuracy of the reports that such negotiations had occurred. He was Undersecretary of Foreign Affairs at Tokio when it was alleged the negotiations took place.

Mexico's reply to the last American note on the case of American Consular Agent Jenkins was received today at the State Department.

The official text was said to differ only slightly from that contained in Associated Press dispatches Tuesday night from Mexico City.

While officials said they would have no comment to make until they had had time to thoroughly study the note, it was indicated that at first reading the communication had not made a favorable impression.

Officials at department headquarters said the lieutenant implicated participation in the alleged plot and expressed willingness to testify against the former lieutenant.

SHIP OVERTURNS; 20 LOST.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NORFOLK (Va.) Dec. 18.—Five members of the crew and fifteen stowaways were believed to have been lost when the Cuban schooner Sunbeam turned turtle yesterday 185 miles off the Virginia Capes. Capt. River and two members of the crew were brought to Norfolk today on the coast guard cutter Manning.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Substantial evidence of the fierce winter storms which have prevailed for the last ten days between this country and Europe was shown by eight big passenger liners which arrived today with the more than 17,000 belated passengers. Hulls incrusted with ice, rigging covered with sleet and salt from spray caked on funnels, prefaced the stories told by ship officers of high winds and gigantic waves that swept their vessels from stem to stern.

All were from three to five days overdue.

The first of the big liners to come in her dock was the Rotterdam, which reached quarantine late last night. She was three days late, and her master, Capt. J. Baron, declared that the trip was the roughest he had ever made. His declaration was supported by Rear-Admiral Andrew T. Long, of the United States Navy, who returned after escorting the King and Queen of the Belgians back to their country. Admiral Long said that one week ago, when in mid-Atlantic, the weather was so rough that the big liner was rocked like a cradle. One of the passengers was thrown to the deck and suffered a broken leg. On board the ship were five stowaways, who were scared from their hiding places by the rough weather. The Carmania, another of the belated ships, had to put in at Halifax to repair damages caused by a collision at sea with another ship in the fog off the Grand Banks. Many of her passengers were landed at the Canadian port.

The Caronia, from Southampton, was close to the Carmania when the accident occurred, and responded to her wireless calls by putting about and going to her assistance. The tendered help was not needed, but she accompanied her into Halifax. On board the Caronia were more than 3000 Chinese, who served in France as laborers during the war. They were landed at Halifax and will re-embark for their own country at Vancouver.

AMERICANISM ISSUE TODAY AS BERGER AGAIN SEEKS CONGRESS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 18.—Great interest is shown in the outcome of tomorrow's special election in the Fifth Wisconsin Congressional District to fill the vacancy caused by Congress' refusal to seat Victor L. Berger, Socialist. Berger, again the choice of his party's primary election, is opposed by Henry H. Bodenstab, Republican, running as a fusion candiate.

Berger claims his election by from 5000 to 10,000 majority, while the Good Government League, which fostered Bodenstab's campaign, claims similar figures for its candidate providing the usual "stay at home" voters turn out.

Gov. Phillipp and Archbishop Messmer, in open letters, made strong pleas for the defeat of the Socialist candidate. This election, the archbishop wrote, "involves important principles of Christian morality and religion, at least for the Catholic."

EARLY ALLIED PEACE WITH TURKS EXCLUDES AMERICA

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Without any disrespect and without wishing to deprive America of the honor of sharing in the guardianship of Christian communities, the Allies have decided to make peace with Turkey at the earliest possible moment, Premier Lloyd George declared in the House of Commons today.

Lloyd George said there was complete agreement among the Allies on the questions of nonintervention in Russia, but that discussions were proceeding between the United States and Japan concerning future action should the Bolshevik advance reach to any considerable degree eastward.

The Premier said it was impossible to make peace with Russia because of the civil war existing there. If the Bolsheviki wanted to speak for Russia, he added, they must summon a national assembly based on a broad franchise that would represent something with which the Allies could make peace.

The Premier said the agreement to guarantee France against wanton aggression was subject to ratification by the United States of that particular point. If the United States should ratify the guarantee to France, he stated, Great Britain would be free to reconsider her position.

Sir Donald McLean, Liberal leader in the House of Commons, today opened the way for debate, in which Lloyd George had opportunity to state the government's policy affecting a number of questions.

Speaking on the appropriation bill, Sir Donald demanded information especially relative to the arrangements for the defense of France and also regarding the position of the Allied and associated powers concerning the Adriatic situation. He also demanded to know whether Russia was to be left absolutely alone.

Premier Nitti of Italy has been invited to meet Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau and possibly an American representative in Paris in the course of a few days, it was announced by Lloyd George in the House of Commons today. An effort to settle the question of Fiume was the purpose of the meeting, he said.

GERMAN BILL IN FRANCE GROWS.

Devastation Cost 130,000,000,000 Francs—Hope for American Paring.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS, Dec. 17.—A report by Andre Tardieu, the new Minister of Devastated Regions, doubles the estimate of the cost of rebuilding the ruined war zone. This cost is to be borne by Germany. Loucheur, Minister of Industrial Reconstruction, estimated it would cost 65,000,000,000 francs. Tardieu's estimate is 130,000,000,000 francs. Because she thinks America's influence would be against running up the war bill too high, Germany wishes America to be on the reparations commission.

DEMOCRATS ARE IN HOT BATTLE.

Senator. "Up to now Hitchcock forces have been urging that the conference be postponed until after the treaty is settled and also until more Democratic Senators are in town. There are half a dozen of Underwood's friends absent now who cannot get back in time."

Senator Underwood's friends agreed, however, that Senator Hitchcock by virtue of his rank as the senior Democrat of the Foreign Relations Committee, would remain in charge of the treaty contest for the minority side even if Mr. Underwood should be elected.

It has been said at the White House that irrespective of the outcome of the leadership contest Senator Hitchcock will continue as the administration leader in the treaty fight.

Because of the absence of several Democratic members, a few Senators who are reported pledged to vote for Senator Hitchcock, stated today that they would join with Mr. Underwood's friends in endeavoring to put over the vote until the Senate reconvenes in January.

COMPROMISE PARLEYS.

Republican leaders today declared they contemplated no effort to keep the Senate in session beyond Saturday in order to bring to a vote the Knox proposal to declare a state of peace, though they said it might be brought up for discussion during Saturday's session, if the committee acted and the way was cleared through disposition of the railroad bill.

Compromise parleys continued actively today. Senator Hitchcock, the Democratic leader, and other Democrats conferring with several members of the mild reservation group of Republicans. There was some discussion of a round table conference of friends of the treaty after the holidays, but it was said no definite plan was evolved.

SENATE MAY ACT SOON.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Possibility that the Senate peace treaty fight may be resumed actively before the holiday recess developed today, when the Foreign Relations Committee was called to meet Saturday morning. The purpose of the meeting was not announced, but leaders indicated that an effort probably would be made to get committee action on the resolution of Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, to declare a state of peace.

ALLEGORIC PORTRAIT RED CROSS TRIBUTE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—A $22,000 canvas of "Idealized American Womanhood, an Enigmatic Interpretation of Madonnahood," which will be presented by the War Department to Red Cross headquarters in Washington as a tribute to the great ministering organization from the belligerent forces, was placed on exhibition today.

Portraits of more than 1000 women Red Cross workers who rendered most conspicuous service in the war were selected by Red Cross headquarters and scientifically fused or blended into one remarkable face by Maj. Joseph Kitchell and incorporated in a large allegoric composition by F. Luis Mora. Among portraits selected were Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice-President; Mrs. W. H. Vanderbilt, Mrs. August Belmont and many shop and factory girls.

MEXICAN IN TEXAS TO GET CASH FOR RANSOM

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 18.—A prominent Mexican from Musquiz, Mex., who, with his brother, was captured by Villa when that town was raided last week, arrived yesterday to raise $10,000 demanded as ransom for himself and brother. Villa has about twenty machine guns, mostly operated by Americans, the Musquiz citizen said. The report that Villa has a large force is attributed to the fact that each of his 600 fighting men has two or three horses, the extra mounts being used to carry loot.

ADEQUATE AMERICAN LOANS NEEDED TO STEM RETURN OF TEUTON POWER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 18.—Germany again will dominate Europe in fifty years unless adequate loans are made by the United States to other European countries to enable them to buy raw materials and begin exporting, T. T. C. Gregory, head of the American mission to Austria Hungary after the armistice, declared in an address here today.

"We must realize that Europe is not producing, and it must export as well as consume to restore normal conditions," he said. "Germany is almost on her feet, the old trade machinery is in motion. She will join with Russia and dominate the world unless her influence is counteracted."

Without American aid Central Europe will become Bolshevist, the event being likely to occur any time, Gregory stated.

A BEAUTIFUL PLATINUM WRIST WATCH FOR HER

"EVERY THING OF BEAUTY, A JOY FOREVER." The familiar quotation may well be applied to any one of Brock and Company's magnificent platinum wrist watches. Each is, indeed, "a thing of beauty," and will endure as "a joy forever."

These lovely watches are displayed in a variety of models, among them the rectangular, cushion, octagonal, square and oval styles.

One of these modish timepieces in a combination of diamonds and sapphires, diamonds and emeralds or diamonds and onyx, as a Christmas gift surely would add immeasurably to HER happiness.

Or, it may be, that from a very complete stock of 14-karat gold wrist watches, also shown in a variety of captivating styles — some hand-carved, others engraved—radium-dialed—you may find just the watch you have in mind for Milady.

WON'T CUT OUT LABOR CLAUSES

Senate Refuses to Sidestep Anti-Strike Issue.

Votes 46 to 25 Against Rejecting Whole Section.

No Holiday Till Railroad Bill is in Conference.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The Senate held its fifth night session on the railroad bill tonight, with grave doubts that the measure could be passed in time to permit beginning of the holidays recess, Saturday.

The labor clauses, including the anti-strike provision of the Cummins measure, were under discussion, culminating in the rejection, by a vote of 25 to 46, of the proposal of Senator Stanley, Democrat, Kentucky, to eliminate the whole section.

During the debate an agreement was reached by Senate and House majority leaders not to permit a holiday recess until the measure is through the Senate and sent to conference.

CALLS PLAN UNFAIR.

Opposing the anti-strike section, Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, said criminal penalties for strikes would not accomplish their purpose. The Cummins plan he characterized as "repressive, unfair and unjust."

"Strikes among certain classes of employees are unjustifiable and among these are railroad employees," declared Senator Walsh, "but we cannot chain them to their posts like galley slaves."

On a tie vote of 31 to 31 the substitute of Senator McCormick, Republican, Illinois, for the anti-strike provision, was rejected and Mr. McCormick gave notice that he would ask for another vote later.

AGAINST TRIBUNALS.

Senator Underwood, Democrat, Alabama, opened the discussion. He opposed the Stanley motion, declaring Congress, in the interest of the public, must provide tribunals for settling disputes, so that there will be no interruption of railroad service.

Five Republicans, Borah, Gronna, La Follette, McNary and Norris, joined with twenty Democrats in favor of eliminating the labor provisions bodily. The Democrats were Ashurst, Chamberlain, Fletcher, Gay, Gerry, Harris, Harrison, Henderson, Jones (New Mexico,) Kendrick, King, Kirby, McKellar, Nugent, Overman, Sheppard, Smith (South Carolina,) Stanley, Trammell and Walsh (Massachusetts.)

FUNERAL SERVICES CONDUCTED FOR DR. MILLSPAUGH, WAS NORMAL'S HEAD.

Funeral services for Dr. Jesse Fonda Millspaugh, for years head of the Los Angeles State Normal School, were conducted yesterday at the First Congregational Church by Rev. Carl S. Patton, the pastor. Dr. Millspaugh died suddenly at his home in Hollywood last Friday night.

Skeele was at the organ during the services, which were attended by many friends and by representatives of a number of organizations of which Dr. Millspaugh was a member, including the alumni of the University of Michigan, and the Delta Upsilon Fraternity. Members of the faculty of the southern branch of the University of California were also present.

Burial was at Hollywood Cemetery. The pallbearers were: James Chamberlain, C. W. Waddell, E. H. Wilcox, D. M. Thompson, Fremont Ackerman and C. W. Kent.

Yesterday the Teachers' Institute of Los Angeles county adopted resolutions, expressing sorrow because of the death of Dr. Millspaugh, and those of Edward Hyatt, formerly State Superintendent of Public Instruction at Sacramento, and of L. W. Babcock, principal of the El Monte High School.

DROPS DEAD DANCING AT LONG BEACH BALL.

While merrymaking was at its height at the Eagles' ball at Long Beach last night, Roy Pfunder, one of the dancers, fell to the floor, and died before assistance could reach him. He was 35 years old, and came to Long Beach six weeks ago from Kansas City. He had rooms at a private residence at Broadway and Chestnut street. Death was due to heart failure.

L. A. WOMAN ENDS 3 YEARS' SEARCH
Nothing Helped Her Until She Took Tanlac.
"Not Another Medicine in World Like It." She Says.
Has Fine Appetite, Digestion is Perfect, and Sleeps Like Child.

"No treatment or medicine ever helped me until I started taking Tanlac, and I have been trying for three years to get relief," said Mrs. May Glaco, who resides at 2611 East First street, Los Angeles, Cal., recently. Continuing, she said:

"For the past three years I have suffered something awful with the worst sort of stomach trouble. My appetite was very poor and what little I did manage to force down would cause me to have such intense pains I could hardly stand them. Gas would form and I would bloat terribly. My nerves were in an awful condition and it was simply impossible for me to get a good night's sleep, and I would get up in the morning feeling worse than when I went to bed. I lost a great deal in weight and became so weak and run down I had to have help in doing my housework, as it was only with the greatest effort I could get about at all.

"A lady friend of mine told me about the good Tanlac was doing her and advised me to try it. I took her advice and it was simply remarkable how much good even the first bottle did me. I have only taken three bottles so far and I have a fine appetite and can eat anything I want without any bad after-effects. I am never troubled with gas or bloating and those severe pains have left me entirely. My nerves are in fine condition and I can sleep all night long as peacefully as a child. I am gaining in weight and strength every day, and can do all my own housework with the greatest ease. After what Tanlac has done for me I don't think there is another medicine in the world like it, and I tell everyone I get a chance about how good it is."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Owl Drug Co.—[Advertisement.

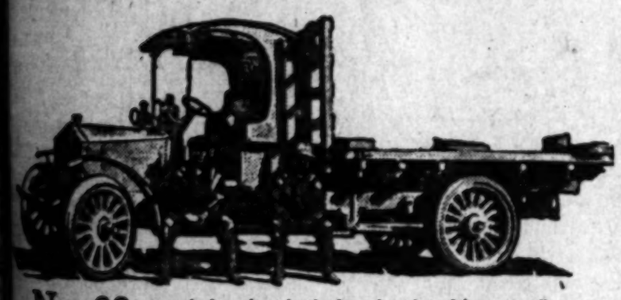
Pierce-Arrow
...ucks are still running after 8 years

This is one of the reasons why Pierce-Arrows are so seldom in the second-hand market—and are snapped up at good prices when offered for resale.



No. 23 owned by the Belridge Oil Company of California has served for 8 years under particularly severe conditions, but shows no evidence of wear and promises many more years of service.

It is used at the company's oil fields near McKittrick, California and hauls long lengths of heavy well casings across the deserts. The rough roads and deep sands put as hard a strain on the mechanism as could well be imagined.

The satisfaction that No. 23 gave led to the purchase of two additional Pierce-Arrow trucks for similar work.

Pay enough to buy a durable truck. Eventually its first cost is divided by the actual number of days the truck runs. A short-lived truck is a liability.

WHY PIERCE-ARROW?

1. Delivers more work in a given time.
2. Loses less time on the job and off the job.
3. Costs less to operate and less to maintain.
4. Lasts longer, depreciates less and commands a higher resale price at all times.

Many Football Artists to Arrive Next Week.

Scott High School to Visit Los Angeles.

Pigskin Lovers Would Like to See Squad Play.

Los Angeles is to be surfeited with high-class football performers next week. The Oregon representatives arrive Sunday, and on Tuesday the Scott High team, on its way to the Northwest to meet Everett, puts in an appearance. Three days later the sons of John Harvard arrive on the scene.

The announcement that the Scott High School eleven is on its way to Los Angeles is something of a surprise. It is vouched for by Charley Keppen of the L.A.A.C., who yesterday received a letter from Merrill of the Keel Klub team of Long Beach, asking club privileges for the eastern prep players during their stay in this city. Merrill stated in his letter that there are thirty-eight in the party, including members of the Toledo Chamber of Commerce. The stay in this city is to be brief, from the 23rd to the 27th.

The city will be glad to welcome these young pigskinners from the East, but local football followers would be a heap more gratified to know that they were going to tangle with a Southern California team. It is a shame that arrangements could not have been made for a game with one of the prep elevens in this neck of the woods.

Although the college five is yet to be definitely decided upon, and no captain will be elected even until after the Christmas holidays, the college team and substitutes displayed considerable speed, Judy, who subbed for Home in the second half, proving one of the varsity stars, with eight points scored to his credit.

BROWN TO BOX GRUNAN AGAIN.

Crack Lightweights in Feature Go at Doyle's.

Marshall Meets Hunefeld in the Semi-Windup.

Six Good Bouts Comprise Tonight's Programme.

Young Brown and Al Grunan will box the main event at the Vernon arena tonight. The two met last Friday night when Grunan won a clean-cut decision. Their bout was fast from start to finish and the fourth round was three solid minutes of slugging.

The semi-wind-up is very nearly of main event caliber, Willie Hunefeld, a main event performer, being matched with Jimmy Marshall, the rough lightweight from Sacramento.

Young Farrell and Frankie Garcia will box the fourth bout on the card.

Another good battle should be that between Joe Rooney and Charley Moy. Red Bresnan will meet Young Cumpston and Kid Zuzu will meet Red Belden in the curtain raiser.

REDLANDS SOPHOMORES DEFEAT THE JUNIORS.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Dec. 18.—The hardest-fought basketball game ever seen in Redlands was played at the university last night when the sophomores defeated the juniors, 33 to 29. When the game ended it was found that it was a tie, requiring extra play for a decision. The line-up was: Sophs—Tolleson and Troyer, forwards; Ross, center; Ogden and Randall, guards. Juniors—Dye and Kilby, forwards; Truesdall, center Lackey and Maynard, guards.

S. LESSER COLLAPSES IN COURT.

...er of Girl for Whose Slaying New is on Trial for His Life is Led Hysterical from Stand After Testifying for the State of Her Daughter's Romance.

...Alice Lesser, mother of Freda J. Lesser, for whose supposed murder Harry S. New is ...for his life before a jury in Judge Craig's court, was late yesterday afternoon called as a ...for the State. After twenty-five minutes on the stand, she collapsed and was led from the ...in an hysterical condition, sobbing, "Oh, my baby, oh, my baby!"

...she was brought into the room on crutches, dressed entirely in black, assisted by Deputy District ...ttorney and relatives, Mrs. Lesser's crying and sobbing could be heard as she waited in an adjoining ...oment there as she was giving her testimony, she broke down and was unable to proceed.

...She was shown a small photograph of her daughter by Deputy District Attorney Keyes, who ques...ed for the prosecution, and Mrs. Lesser covered her face with her hands, and cried, "I cannot look at ...t." At the conclusion of the brief and gentle examination by the prosecution, Attorney Le Compte Davis, ...ounsel for New, asked, after securing the facts of Freda and New starting on the automobile drive from ...which the young girl did not return alive, "And you have never seen your daughter since that day?" And Mrs. ...Lesser answered, "No! No!" and Mr. Davis announced the conclusion of his cross-examination, and ...the court adjourned for the day.

HER STORY.

...During the periods when her ...examination rendered her al...most, Mrs. Lesser answ...ered the questions put to ...her by attorneys of both sides ...in the form of the friend...ship of her daughter and New ...and events on the fatal ...day. Deputy District At...torney Keyes asked:

"...Mrs. Lesser was your daugh...ter?

"...Yes.

"...How old was her age? A.: ...She has been 20 years old ...since August.

"...What was her occupation? ...A.: She acted as a stenographer ...for the Door Company.

"...Did you know that she was ...keeping company" ...with Mr. A.: Yes, with Mr. ...New.

"...How often did Mr. New often? ...A.: Three or four times a ...week.

"...Have you been told of New call...ing on your daughter at the Lesser home on North ...Fremont avenue at 2:30 o'clock on the ...afternoon of the Fourth of July and ...that Mrs. Lesser and her friend ...Mrs. Putnam, and Miss ...Saunders from Rosch, to visit ...Freda? A.: Yes, Mrs. Lesser, ...Mrs. Putnam remained ...a short time, re...turning to the city and reaching the ...house at 5:30 o'clock. Under ...direct examination by Mr. Keyes, Mrs. Les...ser said he wanted to take ...a ride and that he would ...be back by 6 o'clock. He said ...he was going out to Pasadena ...to see friends and take them to ...dinner. Mr. Dixon (H. P. ...Dixon, supervisor.) I wanted ...to go with him, but she said ...there was not enough room. I ...DID NOT KNOW WAS HAPPY.

"...Did you say, 'Mamma, don't get ...mad, I will get back,' 'She ...left home of mind and ...spirit of the friendship ...and love, Mrs. Les...ser had on the day before ...the Fourth of July, New had said to her (Mrs. Lesser) when Freda was not present, while the young man and the girl's mother were on the porch of their home on Griffin avenue, "I am going to take Freda away from you for life; for good. I am going to marry her." Mrs. Lesser said she told New, "Freda is all I have in the world. Be good to her." New, according to Mrs. Lesser, said he wanted to marry Freda on Saturday (July 5) before his mother (Mrs. Lillie M. Burger) returned from Indianapolis. Mrs. Lesser said that New said that they (he and Freda) would have plenty of furniture of their own.

MOTHER FAVORED NEW.

Attorney Davis, in his cross-examination, brought out from Mrs. Lesser that she considered New acceptable as a husband for Freda. She was asked by Mr. Davis:

Q.: Your daughter seemed happy? A.: Yes.

Q.: And Mr. New was nice to you? A.: Yes. He brought me flowers and was nice to me.

Q.: They loved each other? A.: He seemed to like her and she him.

Q.: He wanted to get married on the Saturday (July 5) after the Thursday (July 3?) A.: Yes. I told him that Freda needed more clothes.

After telling of the preparations for Freda and New taking a ride to Pasadena after the return from Hermosa, Mrs. Lesser testified:

A.: Mr. New told my neighbor, Mrs. Putnam, to stay with me until he and Freda returned. Mr. New had brought a watermelon when he came in the afternoon and when he and Freda left he told me not to cut the watermelon until he and Freda returned.

Q. (by Mr. Davis:) Freda was happy when she left? A.: Yes.

HALF-FAINTING.

Mrs. Lesser's arrival in the court was unexpected. Officer Davidson was on the stand, completing his testimony, when an attache of the District Attorney's office walked quickly into the courtroom and whispered something in Mr. Woolwine's ear. In the next instant there was a little commotion in the hall and the deputy sheriffs in charge of the arrangements rushed out of the room.

Dressed in black, her head and face covered with a heavy black veil, Mrs. Lesser was laboriously climbing up the long flight of stairs leading to the courtroom. She was on crutches. A woman friend was on each side, half supporting, half lifting her upward.

As she reached the half-way landing she gave a loud sob and burst into tears. "Oh, I can't, I can't," she moaned and faltered, almost falling to the marble steps. She was gently urged along and when she reached the last step was met by Detective Cline and other officers. Mr. Woolwine, Mr. Keyes and half of the court attaches were in the outer hallway by this time.

Mrs. Lesser was taken to the ladies' restroom and rested there for several minutes, the court procedure, meantime, remaining at a standstill.

It was apparent from Mrs. Lesser's answers, both to questions asked by the defense and the prosecution, that she had no knowledge of her daughter's condition. Neither Mr. Woolwine nor Mr. Davis asked Mrs. Lesser any questions regarding the testimony given by Dr. A. F. Wagner on the delicate point.

Among those who came with Mrs. Lesser to court was Miss Saunders, the trained nurse, who has long lived at the Lesser home, and who will be an important witness for the prosecution.

New showed no apparent interest while Mrs. Lesser was testifying.

Previous to the calling of Mrs. Lesser, the first witness for the prosecution was Dr. A. F. Wagner, County Autopsy Surgeon, and the second witness, Detective D. A. Davidson, to whom New surrendered at Central Police Station early on the morning of July 5. The drawing of the jury was unexpectedly completed at 2:50 o'clock and sworn in.

NO WOMEN ON JURY.

Although both panels from which the jury was selected included a number of women, all of them were eliminated by challenges, principally from the defense, and the jury which will decide New's case is made up entirely of men. This is said, by lawyers, to be an unusual condition in this State in recent years.

In questioning Detective Davidson, Deputy District Attorney Keyes carefully refrained from asking any questions as to the facts contained in New's statements made at the police station when he surrendered, the prosecutor stating that he would again call Mr. Davidson. It was evident that the prosecution desires to establish the facts of the surrender of New before beginning the legal fight with the defense to have admitted by the court as evidence New's statements made when he surrendered and on the following day. For over the admission of these statements will come one of the bitterest contests of the entire trial, the defense contending that they should not be admitted until the proof of the crime has been established by other evidence than the statement. Detective Sergeant Ben McCann will be called this morning to give testimony as to the surrender of New and Mrs. Clyde Minnis, Freda Lesser's cousin, who was in court yesterday afternoon, will also be called by the State.

Dr. Wagner, the first witness, told of performing the autopsy on Freda Lesser, and during his testimony and that of Detective Davidson the blue-black 38-caliber Colt's revolver which New laid on the desk at police headquarters when he surrendered, together with one exploded and five unexploded bullets, were shown to Dr. Wagner and passed about among the members of the jury, as was also the bullet which killed the young woman, and they were introduced in evidence.

New sat apparently unmoved when the revolver was produced, and as usual, looked slightly downward, shifting neither his head nor eyes to right or left.

Dr. Wagner showed, by pointing to parts of Mr. Keyes's head, how the bullet which killed Freda Lesser, entered almost at the corner of the right eye of the girl, and then passing slightly downward, the witness said, lodged in the left side of the head. Dr. Wagner also testified that the autopsy revealed that Freda Lesser would, in time, have become a mother, conception having begun six weeks previous to her death.

FOR SUICIDE THEORY.

By questions asked under cross-examination, by Mr. Davis of both Dr. Wagner and Detective Davidson, it was evident that the defense is laying the foundation for the introduction of testimony, if desired, to show that the powder marks on the girl's temple and the course of the bullet do not preclude the conclusion that she may have fired the shot which ended her life. Dr. Wagner admitted under cross-examination that the course of the bullet depended on the position of the body at the time the bullet was fired

FOSTER IS NOT ELECTED.

School Head's Post Still Open; Educator Quits Portland; Press Blamed.

The Board of Education did not elect Dr. William T. Foster of Portland, Or., as the new superintendent of the Los Angeles city schools yesterday, in spite of the previous statement of more than one member of the board that it would do so and in spite of the fact that the resignation of Dr. Foster as president of Reed College, at Portland, was officially announced yesterday by the trustees of that institution.

Instead, the newspapers of the city, which have quoted various of the board members on the subject, were warmly criticised by Members D. K. Edwards and Melville Dozier for the matter published. They declared that much of it was manufactured without basis in fact and charged the newspapers with trying to elect a candidate over the heads of the board.

Mr. Edwards said he was surprised at the "attitude of the press" regarding the selection of Dr. Foster. He said he had approached the teachers' institute with a free mind and that he had heard nothing officially which would indicate that the published articles were true regarding Dr. Foster's selection.

"Many of these stories are made up out of the whole cloth," he added.

Mr. Dozier said he concurred with Mr. Edwards. "It does us an injustice to have the press print these stories on hearsay. They are printed with the evident intention of favoring some candidate, and this action has hurt the candidate they sought to help. It appears to me that the press is trying to beat the board in appointing the superintendent," he declared.

A dispatch to The Times from Portland last night stated that the resignation of Dr. Foster as head of Reed College was very sudden and unexpected. It was accepted with regret by the trustees. At the Union League Club last night Dr. Foster said he will have an announcement to make in a day or so.

At the meeting yesterday, Mr. Edwards declared the board is not in a hurry to appoint a successor to Dr. Shiels, and that they had decided to hear several of the visiting speakers with the idea of securing a new superintendent. In support of this contention Mr. Edwards remarked that he had asked the secretary of the board to prepare a list of the applicants for the position so that a choice could be made.

Action may be taken on the matter of appointing a superintendent at the next regular meeting of the board Monday night. The Committee of the Whole, however, may meet at any time, at the call of the chairman, and decide the matter in committee meeting.

ARREST IN HINDIN'S CASE.

The recent arrest and detention at Tia Juana, Mex., of Theodore J. Hindin, Los Angeles diamond broker, and his subsequent release on orders from Gov. Esteban Cantu, without any statement regarding the exact charges or circumstances of the case, were followed yesterday by action on the part of the United States government, when Frank Padilla, one of the men accused of having induced Hindin to cross the international line, was arrested by Department of Justice officials at San Diego.

Neither the nature of the charge against Padilla, nor the significance of his arrest was discussed by the Federal authorities. Officers in touch with the Hindin case from another angle believe, however, that the Mexican's arrest is an important step toward the solution of the mystery connected with the detention of the broker in Mexico.

According to Mr. Hindin's story and that told by Detective Sergeant Murphy of the Los Angeles police department, who was arrested with Mr. Hindin, but later released, Padilla about three weeks ago went to Mr. Hindin's office in the Union Oil Building and invited him to go to San Diego to buy a large assortment of diamonds. These stones, Padilla is alleged to have told Mr. Hindin, were to be brought from Tia Juana into San Diego for inspection. Later, saying the arrangement had been changed, Padilla induced Mr. Hindin to go to Tia Juana to inspect the diamonds. A few minutes after Mr. Murphy and Mr. Hindin crossed the international line they were arrested.

RAIL SERVICE NORMAL AGAIN.

Canceled Through Trains on Santa Fe Restored as Coal Crisis Ends.

Overland passenger service on the Santa Fe Railway, which has been restricted since December 8, by the elimination of one train a day, because of the coal shortage, was restored to normal yesterday. According to the Railroad Administration, overland service on all the steam roads terminating here is again normal and will continue to be so unless some other emergency arises. Travel is tremendously heavy at present.

DEATH TREADS CLOSE ON TRAGEDY'S HEELS.

HARROWING SEA ESCAPE IS BLAMED FOR PASSING OF FORMER LOCAL GIRL.

Mrs. Myrtle Clampitt Secor, wife of Maj. T. A. Secor, commandant of the U. S. Marines at Bahama, Santo Domingo, is dead at that place of island fever. The news was received here yesterday by her father, L. A. Clampitt, well-known oil operator, who resides at San Fernando. Maj. Secor and his 4-months-old daughter are bringing the body here for burial.

The death of Mrs. Secor is said to have been due to exposure, following the capsizing of a yacht during an outing trip recently. Alone in the sea, she clung to the side of the overturned boat until she was rescued, nearly forty-eight hours after the mishap. This was about four months before her little daughter was born, and the exposure lowered her vitality to such an extent that she became an easy victim of the fever.

Mrs. Secor was born here, January 3, 1893. Her marriage to Maj. Secor was the culmination of a romance which began while they were students at Polytechnic High School, where he was a football star. They were married June 3, 1916.

TO END THEATER SUIT.

Morosco and Wife Arranging to Settle Property Interests.

The order to show cause why Oliver Morosco should not be restrained from disposing of his property interests in the Morosco Theater, was continued by Judge Jackson yesterday, until January 15 on motion of Philip Cohen, attorney for Mrs. Morosco. Mr. Cohen stated that the parties to the suit are arranging in New York to settle their property interests.

In her suit Mrs. Morosco asks for an accounting, a statement weekly of the income and expenditures of the Morosco Theater, and a list of plays and contracts. Harry A. Schroeder and Donald Bowles are joined with Mr. Morosco as defendants.

FREIGHT DERAILMENT MAKES TRAINS LATE.

Passenger traffic on the coast line of the Southern Pacific Railroad was somewhat delayed yesterday because of a freight derailment south of Santa Barbara. Two sections of the Lark were detoured over the San Joaquin Valley line, arriving here last night at 11 o'clock. Coast line trains that left here last night found the track cleared.

DECEIVED BRIDE A SUICIDE.

Victimized into Marriage with Bogus Army Officer, She Drowns Herself.

The body of Mrs. Muriel McMunn, 26 years of age, who left her home at 94 Esther street, Pasadena, on December 4, after writing a note saying she intended to take her life because her bogus soldier-husband had deceived her, was found yesterday in shallow water a few feet from the shore, half-way between White's Point and Portuguese Bend and about eight miles west of Los Angeles Harbor, by two boys.

Mrs. McMunn's brother, J. W. Emery, 4715 Hammel street, this city, and two other brothers, identified the body at a late hour last night. The body was taken to the Goodrich undertaking parlors, at the harbor.

The boys who saw the body floating among the rocks notified the police. On her finger was found her wedding ring, on the inside of which was engraved: "From Harry to Muriel—1918."

The despondent bride left her home the week following her marriage to Harry McMunn, 24 years old, a street car conductor of this city, who told her that he was an auditor-investigator in the Intelli-

TO END PARKING IN BROAD AREA.

Council Orders Drafting of Necessary Ordinance.

Both No-Stop and Hour-Stop Districts Determined.

New Auto Rules Expected to Obtain January First.

A no-parking district, to include practically all of the congested downtown area, and a district in which parking is to be limited to an hour, are about to be created by the City Council. The Council, with only two opposing votes, which were based on the question of closing one certain block, so decided yesterday. The City Attorney is to prepare at once the necessary ordinance and it is probable it will contain the emergency clause, so that it may go into effect immediately after its passage, being signed by the Mayor and having had one official publication.

As decided on by the Council yesterday, the no-parking district will include the territory within the following boundaries: Starting at First and Hill streets, south on Hill to Fourth street, west on Fourth to Grand avenue, south on Grand avenue to Sixth street, west on Sixth to Figueroa street, south on Figueroa to Tenth street, east on Tenth to Los Angeles street, north on Los Angeles to First street, west on First to the place of beginning. Third street, through the tunnel, to the easterly line of Figueroa street, is also to be included in the no-parking district.

In addition, the Public Safety Committee late yesterday adopted the following resolutions, which are to go before the Council today, fixing the no-parking hours and outlining a district, called the "business district," as distinct from the congested district, in which parking shall be limited to an hour:

MUST TURN TO RIGHT.

"We recommend that the no-parking hours in the restricted district shall be from 9 o'clock in the morning until 6:30 o'clock in the evening; that there shall be no left-hand turning of vehicles between the hours of 4 a.m. and 6 p.m., on Main street from First to Eighth; on Spring street, from First to Eighth; on Broadway, from First to Eighth; on Hill street, from Fifth to Eighth, and all cross streets within the above described district, except Seventh, which will extend from Main to Grand avenue.

"The business district shall include all territory within the district described as follows: Beginning at the Plaza, thence southerly on Los Angeles street to Alisо street; thence east on Alisо street to San Pedro street; south on San Pedro street to Jackson street; east on Jackson street to Central avenue; south on Central avenue to Seventh street; west on Seventh street to San Pedro street; south on San Pedro street to Pico street; west on Pico street to Georgia street; north on Georgia street to Ninth street; west on Ninth street to Bixel street; north on Bixel street to Crown Hill; east on Crown Hill to Boylston avenue; north on Boylston avenue to Temple street; east on Temple street to Figueroa street; north on Figueroa street to Sunset boulevard; east on Sunset boulevard to point of beginning, including the boundary streets, and the maximum limit for time of parking shall be one hour, except that territory included in the congested district."

FOR NEW YEAR'S.

Henry E. Osborne, chief engineer of the Board of Public Utilities, stated yesterday he expects to see the anti-parking ordinance in effect on the first day of January, together with the order prohibiting the left-handed turn of traffic. With these changes, he stated, the Los Angeles Railway's job of putting into effect economy changes in operation will be facilitated.

After the first of the year it will not be permissible to stop any kind of a vehicle within the congested district, except for an emergency. A delivery truck may stop to deliver a parcel or take one away, but may not park, and a doctor can leave his machine standing for the length of time it takes him to make a call in that district, or an ambulance may hesitate there to pick up an accident victim, but a woman cannot leave her machine there and go into a store to exchange a spool of thread.

Street cars, after January 1, will cease turning to the left. Grand-avenue cars, northbound, will turn off Grand at Tenth street and proceed north on Broadway from Tenth and Broadway.

FOR MRS. LORA GWIN.

Following funeral services conducted Monday by Rev. Edgar F. Daugherty of the First Christian Church, the body of Mrs. Lora Manatt Gwin was yesterday placed in the mausoleum in the Inglewood Cemetery beside that of her father, Thomas Manatt, a pioneer winter resident of this city, and brother, Albert. The remains of Mrs. Gwin, who died in Des Moines, Iowa, were accompanied here by Samuel B. Gwin, prominent Iowa attorney, and son, Harold M. She was 50 years of age. Her father, whose home was in Brooklyn, Iowa, was one of the first winter residents of the Southland.

SYMPHONY CONCERT.

The Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra will play its second symphonic concert of the season this afternoon at Clune's Auditorium, with Josef Desider Vecsei, Hungarian pianist, appearing as soloist. Vecsei will present Schumann's concerto for the piano, and the orchestral numbers on the programme will include Beethoven's Eighth Symphony, McCoy's prelude to "The Hamadryads" and Sinigaglia's "La Baruffe Chissota." Sunday afternoon the orchestra, with Vecsei, will give a popular concert at the auditorium.

DINNERS, PLAYS, SPEECHES.

Full and Interesting Day at Teachers' Institute; Miss Arnold Honored.

A musical entertainment at the auditorium of the southern branch, University of California, and a play, "She Stoops to Conquer," at the Manual Arts High School auditorium, were the features of the evening session of the Southern California Teachers' Association convention yesterday.

The musical entertainment was given by the university music organizations. The singing was limited to Christmas carols. The play at the Manual Arts was given by the students of the High School under the direction of Isabel McReynolds Gray.

A general session of the convention was held in the afternoon at the Bible Institute auditorium, Dr. Margaret S. McNaught, commissioner of elementary education, presiding. Section meetings were held at several different places.

Miss Sarah Louise Arnold, dean of Simmons College, Boston, who has made several speeches at the convention, was the guest of honor at a luncheon at noon given by the City Teachers' Club. Miss Arnold talked of the influence of the home on the school and the school on the home life. She was warmly applauded by the 350 teachers present. She told something of her experiences as a lecturer for the government Food Administration, declaring that "Uncle Sam is the one best teacher in the world."

She also spoke before the Pacific Conference of Home Economics, which was one of the sectional meetings held at Egan School in the afternoon.

Two banquets at 6:30 o'clock last night were also on the programme. The Schoolmaster's Club of Southern California held its dinner at the Union League Club, and the Southern California school women's Time-to-Time Club held a dinner at the Clark Hotel. The lecturers who are visiting here and taking part in the programme were the guests of honor at these banquets. Members of the Board of Education and the assistant superintendents of city and county schools were also invited guests.

Dr. H. B. Wilson, Superintendent of Public Schools at Berkeley, was one of the principal speakers at the morning session. He spoke on "The Americanization of Education," declaring in part that education must be on as sound a basis as is business of the country. Dr. David Snedden, also spoke at the morning session, which was held at Clune's Auditorium. Another general session was held yesterday morning at the Bible Institute, at which State Superintendent of Schools Will Wood presided. Dr. George R. Strayer and Dr. Frank Thompson spoke at this meeting.

The annual business meeting for the election of officers and reports from the several committees will be held this morning at 9 o'clock at the Bible Institute Auditorium. At this meeting the committee which has been preparing a new constitution will report, and the matter acted on. There will be a general session at Trinity Auditorium at 9:30 this morning. At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon another general session will be held at the Bible Institute.

CENSUS BLANKS FOR ABSENTEES.

Residents Who will be Away Next Month Should Fill Out Forms at Once.

Census Supervisor Dodson asked yesterday that all families that will be absent from the county in January secure information blanks from him at once. Since such families cannot be reached by the census enumerators next month, it will be necessary for the absentees or prospective absentees to give to Mr. Dodson himself the information Uncle Sam wants. This can be done by getting blanks at 323 Merchants' Trust Building, the census office, filling them out and returning them to the Supervisor.

UNION TACTICS HIT TEACHERS.

Laborites Refuse to Supply Waiters at Banquet Till Tip Fund is Raised.

School-teachers who attended the teachers' institute at San Diego last Wednesday received a practical demonstration of the methods of the union-labor organizations they are asked to join.

The teachers gave a banquet Monday, and the Waiters' union, realizing that school-teachers have little or no spare money, refused to supply waiters until the teachers guaranteed there would be $60 in tips. This had to be supplied by taking up a collection at the Wednesday-night meeting of the institute.

PLAN IMPROVEMENTS.

Duplicate assessment district maps for the improvement of Romaine street, between Hobart boulevard and Oxford avenue; for the sewering of Hoover street, between Slauson avenue and Fifty-ninth place, and for improvement of Berendo street, from Eighth to Ninth streets, were adopted by the City Council yesterday.

THE NORTHLAND.

If somebody would invent some way of burning snowballs for fuel the Dakota country might not be such a bad place to live, after all.

NEED THE MONEY.

New York Aldermen are paid $2000 a year, but are urging an advance to $5000. They do not threaten a strike, however, as there are presumed to be perquisites which make the job worth while.

NEVER KNEW IT.

People who are disappointed because the world did not come to an end Wednesday according to the predictions of the alarmists need not worry. The old earth is already disturbed to such an extent that the end might have passed unnoticed.

THE GREAT QUEST.

A man came all the way from Boston and says he is looking for M. T. House, but so far has been unsuccessful in his quest. Says he is willing to pay a liberal reward on the monthly installment plan for the aforesaid M. T. House. Any person having knowledge of the whereabouts of said M. T. House would do well to report same through the classified columns of The Times.

RULES OF THE AIR.

Aerial traffic cops will soon be needed. The movement is now on for international regulation of air navigation. This is matter for the League of Nations, but, as the United States is not a member of that distinguished group, this country will be expected to comply with the adopted programme without reservations. As a high-flyer Uncle Sam is bringing up the tail of the procession, anyhow. But for private enterprise there would be very little doing in upper circles.

THE TAINT.

The special representative of the Hearst papers in sleuthing through Germany has made the discovery that the German militarists, even before England had entered the war, were financing and encouraging rebellions against the British empire on the part of the Mohammedans and Buddhists in the Far East and of the Sinn Fein in Ireland. Details of the latter are given at some length and included plans for the seizure of English ships and arms and the possibility of maintaining a friendly harbor for German operations. Most of this has heretofore been made known by The Times and its knowledge has not prevented the Hearst publications from backing the De Valera expedition and championing the Sinn Fein crusade in this country. Both the open and secret foes of England and America have been able to command the hearty interest of Herr Hearst.

THE HAND OF PROVIDENCE.

Strange to say, Providence is opposed to prohibition. At any rate, the Rhode Island Legislature at Providence has appropriated $5000 to make a legal fight against the enforcement of the prohibition amendment in Providence or Rhode Island. It is to be a fight of the littlest State against the biggest nation. It is based upon the contention that the amendment cannot be forced upon the State against its vote and will and that it is an encroachment on the part of the Federal government on the duly-delegated and guaranteed police powers of the States. Little Rhody was one of the four States that refused to ratify the amendment and, b'gee! she stands ready to secede and permit the whole blooming Union to totter into oblivion before she will abandon what she considers her rights. It may yet be necessary to call out the army and discipline Providence. But look out for the hand of Providence.

THE RUSSIAN PERIL.

The other day American Legion operatives in Los Angeles raided the home of a Russian on Boyle Heights and found much inflammatory literature. Previously police officers had seized un-American documents at the rooms of other Russians.

One hears much about the Japanese peril on the Coast, but how about the Russian danger? It is worth as much attention as is bestowed on the other question. In fact there should be greater heed paid to the Russian peril, because there are thirty times as many Russians in the United States as there are Japanese, if, indeed, the proportion is not larger.

Emigration from both countries to the United States is practically at a standstill now, but during the time that the movement of Japanese toward this Coast was on it was controlled so that at no time were there more than 100,000 Japanese in continental America. On the other hand the immigration statistics show that between 1870 and 1914 no fewer than 2,000,000 Russians, Trotsky among them, came to the United States.

Not a few Russians in Los Angeles are known to have been busy spreading the doctrines of Lenine and there are undoubtedly thousands of them in California now who are in hearty sympathy with the soviet system. While the Japanese have been busy tilling the soil, raising strawberries and melons, and engaging in other useful occupations, many Russians have been doing their level best to upset American institutions.

A SIMPLE SOLUTION.

Atty.-Gen. Palmer promised some six months ago to cut down the cost of living within sixty days. Nothing much has happened since except a steady advance in all the necessaries of life from prunes to hairpins. Mr. Palmer, however, is still sanguine that prices can be reduced, and at a meeting of civic organizations of Illinois, called by Gov. Frank O. Lowden, he exposed his hand. It is all distressingly simple and, but for a few trifling barriers, would have been in operation long ago.

According to the handsome head of Uncle Sam's law department all that is needed to reduce the price of both necessities and luxuries is for the women to stop buying them.

It's just as easy!

Any husband knows how easy it is to restrain a woman from buying. All you have to do is to hit her in the head with an ax and plant her under a thousand-pound rock. Then if the angelic choir is not advertising Uneeda union suits, she can save her money and suppress the spending habit. A woman hardly ever buys anything unless she thinks she would like to have it or thinks somebody else might like it and so it is not hard to direct her fancy in economic channels. By taking her money and credit away and printing the bargain advertisements in Sanskrit, her waste measure can be materially reduced.

It is funny that none of us ever thought of this before. Here we have been knocking against the high cost of living and all we had to do was just to stop the women from buying anything. The ladies have been spending money for clothes when they could just as well get along without. They would even make more of a hit without if the men could tell the difference. But anyhow if the women quit buying the cost of living would shrink to a mere trifle. Then if the government would quit making money, so that the men had none to spend, there would be no problems at all.

If Atty.-Gen. Palmer wants to run for President on a platform that forbids women buying anything, he would get three votes in Pasadena alone.

THE ORANGE SHOW FALLDOWN.

The Times observes with regret that the management of the San Bernardino Orange Show has permitted itself to be drawn into a humiliating controversy with the labor unions of that city over the choice of a location of the show. The directorate selected the only site which they held to be available for the annual exhibit of what has come to be regarded as a Southern California institution. The fame of former shows has traveled far and the benefit that San Bernardino has reaped is probably greater than its own citizens realize. But this year the bosses of the labor unions concluded that the time was propitious to take the Orange Show in hand, to use it as a weapon with which to bump the Pacific Electric Railway Company and thus secure their revenge for the lost railroad strike. So the unions announced that the show would be boycotted if it were held at Urbita Springs.

Such action is typical of the ideas of the radicals at the head of the San Bernardino labor unions. They want to control and exact tribute from everything in sight. But their opposition is purely local; and if the management of the Orange Show had been farsighted enough to recognize that the exhibition was becoming greater than the city itself and had gone ahead without paying the slightest attention to the walking delegates the citrus wealth of San Bernardino would have been displayed in all its glory, just the same as ever, to the delightful gaze of tens of thousands of visitors, and before it was over the radicals themselves would have been among those present.

The Orange Show management started right; but at the critical moment it seems to have weakened. It has given a statement to the press in which it seeks to apologize for doing the only thing which, in justice to all concerned, it could do. It is seeking to placate the radical unionists; it has written communications saying "please permit us to do what we have a perfect right to do." A copy of the correspondence has been forwarded to The Times and The Times is disgusted with the cringing attitude which the management assumes in the face of the ruthless radicals. It comes before them on bended knee, as though it were supplicating a Nero whose decree is supreme and who is to be placated only by flattery. "May we please hold an orange show this year and will you not kindly condescend to grace our party with your presence? Turn not your countenance from us in anger, for we are your faithful slaves and henceforth will do nothing but what you direct." Such is the attitude of the management of the Orange Show, a debasement which is bound to have its effect on the exhibition itself.

If any statement were necessary it should have been addressed to the people of Southern California. If the directorate had taken a firm position the people would not have flinched. For every labor-union radical in San Bernardino who sulked in his habitation and refused to visit the show ten would have come from the outside. The people of Southern California were not in sympathy with the railroad strike; they are not in sympathy with the attitude of the radical labor unionists of San Bernardino; and if the appeal had been made to them the response would have filled San Bernardino with more visitors than any other three shows have attracted.

But the Orange Show management has taken such a cowardly position as to turn from it some of the support it might otherwise have had. The show directors should come to Los Angeles and inhaust a little of the atmosphere of industrial freedom. In heaven's name, gentlemen, why didn't you stand up and fight for your rights and tell the interlopers simply to go to?

THE TIGERS.

Georges Carpentier, the European heavyweight champion, would emulate John L. Sullivan and enter the arena of politics as well as of fisticuffs. He is being pressed forward as a candidate for the French Chamber of Deputies, which corresponds to our Congress. It may be said for him that he has the best genuine war record of any prize fighter in the world. Likewise he is a man of considerable intelligence and ability, and the emotional French people are wonderfully fond of him. So far he has not failed in any test, educational or otherwise. Vive the French G.C.'s—Georges Clemenceau and Georges Carpentier!

MIDWINTER NUMBER—AN INSTITUTION.

The Midwinter Number of The Times in seven magazine sections, superbly illustrated in colors and by the incomparable rotogravure process, will be issued and placed on sale January 1 next. On that day this great annual will start on its way to hundreds of thousands of people in other States and other countries bearing its bright, informing message of the great progressive Southwest.

The Midwinter Number of The Times is a California institution of many years' standing. Its function is to present the Southwest, its activities, its resources, its development and attractions comprehensively and accurately so that all the people who read it may get through carefully-prepared articles and pictures a correct impression of this glorious land of ours.

Business men of Los Angeles and of California regard the Midwinter Number as the one medium above all others that effectively presents each year the ever-new and ever-fascinating story of the growth and progress of this community. A thousand letters could not begin to tell as much as does this mammoth edition, so people here have for many years made it a practice to send copies of the Midwinter Number to their friends and acquaintances. Business men and chambers of commerce send it to other States in large numbers. So the Midwinter Number has become deep rooted as a California institution, with an important mission ably performed. Unsuccessful attempts have been made to imitate it, but the Midwinter Number of The Times continues to stand alone, the one great annual text-book of the Southwest.

The forthcoming Midwinter Number is the largest and most comprehensive number ever issued, exceeding by a full thirty-two-page section even the big numbers issued by The Times before the war. During the war, at the request of the War Industries Board, the size of the edition was curtailed. This year the magnificent advance in all lines of endeavor in the Southwest, the magnificent growth in wealth and population constitute a subject of more importance and greater detail, and the enlarged Midwinter Number of The Times to be issued January 1 has been prepared on a commensurate scale.

The coming number, in addition to the regular news and special features, consists of seven thirty-two-page magazine sections, six of which are illustrated in colors and one by the rotogravure process, The Times having the only newspaper rotogravure plant west of the Rocky Mountains.

Carefully edited, the articles written by some of the best writers in the West, the Midwinter Number describes, in its inimitable way, the Southwest, its people and their achievements. It tells in detail and with accuracy of the growth of our industries and commerce, of the erection of huge factories, of the growing pay rolls, of the commerce with other nations.

It tells of the products of the soil, of fields and orchards whose productiveness cannot be matched anywhere else on earth. It treats of the bright and joyous side of life in the Southland, where people not only work more efficiently and to better advantage, but enjoy their hours of leisure in the world's greatest playground.

The unfolding story of the Southwest is one of gripping interest and of myriad phases. As told in the Midwinter Number of The Times in 224 glowing pages, it is one to delight the hearts of the people who live here and to hold the attention and admiration of all those to whom it is sent. The Midwinter Number of The Times fulfills a manifold purpose. It is a valuable text-book of information. It is a warm greeting and welcome from the people of the Southland to those who dwell in other lands.

The country ought to be informed as to the status of the illness of President Wilson. He is the Chief Executive of the country and the people are entitled to know something definite and official. That he is a very sick man seems to be assured, in spite of the camouflage of the bulletins and statements of the physicians. There would not seem to be any politics in telling the truth about a stricken leader.

JOY OUT OF LIFE.

The total value of this country's farm crops this year is estimated by the Department of Agriculture at $14,000,000,000, or is $1,460,000,000 more than last year. Such an increase in production is gratifying to the country at large; it is a certain indication that the agricultural industry is moving in the right direction. The estimate represents an increase in bushels rather than in money, for the price of the essential farm products has varied little in the last twelve months.

So far all is lovely; but always something seems to be taking the joy out of life. The same Washington dispatches that tell of the increase in the value of farm products carry a treasury estimate that the amount of money necessary to be raised next year for the support of the government is a little more than $7,000,000,000. Of that sum $5,000,000,000 is to go for the current expenses of the government and $2,000,000,000 to care for this year's deficit.

One-half the total production of all the farms in America is to go to the support of the Federal officeholders! On what is the rest of the country, outside the office-holding class, to live? Into what industrial slough are the politicians leading us? The United States is essentially an agricultural country, the greatest in the world. Agriculture is the foundation of our prosperity. But have we reached a point where we can give up one-half the total income from farm products in the form of Federal taxes and still prosper? It seems hardly possible.

Is it necessary? Because we stood for enormous government expenditure when the war was at its height, believing it would be of short duration, are we to be penalized for our generosity? The total cost of the Federal government for the year 1913 was less than $1,000,000,000. Why should it be $5,000,000,000 next year? It looks to one on the outside as though those in charge of the ship of state were inclined to loot the cargo.

Those estimates of expense of the Federal departments have yet to be passed upon by Congress. Theoretically the money cannot be expended until it has been appropriated; but we confess that the $2,000,000,000 deficit this year is not very reassuring. The pork barrel seems to have become a sieve of the Danaides, that all the waters of the sea were not sufficient to fill. If the Republican leaders in Congress do not find a way to cut that $5,000,000,000 budget in half, despite the howls of the deserving Democrats, they will have proven faithless stewards; and the best interests of the party and the country will be well served if they are relegated to private life.

TABLOID PLATFORMS.

Edward Pelgate of Higginsville suggests that for once the political parties adopt platforms so short that somebody will read them, and suggests something like this: The Bolsheviki to Russia, the Reds to the firing squad, the agitators to prison, the profiteers to perdition, our country in every heart and the flag over all.—[Kansas City Times.

DUGOUT HOMES.

BY HARRY WILLIAMS.

Caves, the most primitive dwellings of man, may again come into fashion.

In fact, the style has already started in Galicia and other parts of Europe, where people are feeling most acutely the world-wide house famine.

Recently in conversation with a mutual friend who was sleuthing for an apartment I remarked half-facetiously that lacking a roof over my head, and unable to rent one, I would dig a hole. I had in mind the comfortable dugouts along the western front. This was before learning that in parts of Europe people were already retiring into their newly constructed domestic dugouts.

There is really nothing new in the idea. Many sod-breakers of the Middle West made their homes in residential excavations.

With the outbreak of the world war, when things immediately became too hot on the surface, whole armies precipitately acquired the underground habit. Almost overnight millions of them became "cave men." The instinct of self-protection prompted them to begin burrowing into the ground as their hairy-chested ancestors did some thousands of years before when seeking shelter from danger or the elements.

The crude dugouts of 1914 were improved and amplified until those of 1919 were almost palatial and contained all the essential comforts of home. Aside from the possibility of a big shell crashing through the iron-supported and heavily-earthed roof, living in them was far from bad. Snugly boarded inside, with walls and ceilings calked so as to keep the ground moisture from percolating through, they were cool in summer and warm in winter. Those of the Germans, while more elaborate, were not as a rule as desirable as those of the French and Americans. That was because the Germans drove theirs to such a great depth. Fritz was a great chap to burrow. He liked lots of ground on top of him. The deeper he went the more comfort he seemed to extract from mother earth. Therefore, many of his subterranean dwellings were afflicted with a moist earth smell and were sepulchral in their atmosphere. Some of them were incurably damp, and on sleeping in one of them you had the rather uncanny sensation of a living death. There was an eternal clamminess about them which could not be dried out.

Of course, the dugout warfare for obvious reasons lacked ventilation, and fires were not the fashion unless you kept the fumes inside, as smokestacks would draw another sort of fire from a considerable distance.

But a dugout under peace conditions, while not stylish, could be so modernized and furnished as to make a right comfortable habitation—fireplace, steam heat, hot and cold water, windows in the roof, electric lights, pretty pictures on the wall and everything. Anyway, it beats staying out in the wet. And all with a little labor and a few dollars in material. Then when a house is finally erected over the dugout it can be utilized as a basement.

This sort of an emergency habitation is more applicable to the East, tent houses being suited to the salubrity of this section, while a bride and groom just setting up housekeeping could compromise on a wigwam.

Living in a hole or a tepee is not necessarily a symptom of poverty or an indication that the inhabitants thereof are reverting into savagery, although the adoption of the dugout idea would enable every coal miner and sewer digger to own his home. Wealthy people, finding that money won't buy residences which stick up above the ground, could scratch out exclusive dens near the base of the mountains commanding a sightly view.

"Hunting his hole" may yet become more than a figure of speech.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

INDIAN SUMMER.

Bless the Indian who invented
Balmy days which bear his name, days which make us all contented
With the old world's changing game.
Just before the wintry weather we are handed this sweet spoon, mild and mellow days together, like fond memories of June. All the distances are hazy and the rooklets croon and sing, and we mortal jays are lazy with the laziness of spring. And the Indian who invented this soul-soothing interlude should be sought, where he is tented, in his native solitude; and when we at last have found him in the region of his birth, we should load him and surround him with some tributes to his worth.
We should give him something useful, something that Poor Lo desires, plug tobacco or a goose full of the stuffing he admires. For that savage is a hummer and a dandy and a jo, who invented Indian summer when no nipping zephyrs blow;
when the days are mild and sunny and no brooding cloud appears, when the timid patient bunny doesn't have to thaw its ears. Let the Indian be rewarded who worked out a scheme so wise; may it never be recorded that true merit draws no prize. WALT MASON.

Pasadena will Spend $150,000 in Next Few Months.

Banker Says East Favors Gen. Wood for President.

Winter Visitor Dies from Self-Inflicted Wound.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Dec. 18.—The water department of the city of Pasadena will expend $150,000 in the next few months extending the municipal water system to the San Rafael Heights and Annandale districts. Plans are being drawn by the water department engineers for the construction of a large reservoir on the high hills on the west bank of Arroyo Seco.

GEN. WOOD "MENTIONED."

"What does California think of Gen. Leonard Wood?" was the question C. L. Wright, cashier of the Security National Bank, was asked most frequently in the East, he said upon his return today from a month's stay back there.

"I heard Gen. Wood mentioned frequently," he said, "but heard no mention of other Republican Presidential possibilities, except occasional semi-humorous inquiries as to how the home folks regarded Senator Johnson."

INTIMATE POSSESSION —of a— RELIABLE WATCH

That is the only way one can describe that peculiar something that enters into the ownership and use of a reliable watch.

The watch that one looks at the last thing at night, the first thing in the morning and countless times daily is a Christmas gift always remembered. It enters into and becomes a part of the life of the owner.

To such an extent is this intimate quality recognized that father's or mother's watch is usually handed down to son or daughter, who wears it with a mixture of reverence, and pride and affection.

Is it any wonder then that a good watch is one of the best of all Christmas gifts?

May we suggest that you make an early selection so as to provide ample time for engraving monograms or an appropriate inscription?

STOWELL HEIRS CAN'T BE FOUND

Relatives of Actor, Killed in Belgian Congo, Sought.

Public Administrator Takes Charge of the Estate.

British Consul Reports on Fatalities in Africa.

Who is the heir to the estate of William Stowell, also known as William H. S. Farr, motion-picture director, who was killed in the Belgian Congo?

That is a question that is puzzling Public Administrator Bryson. No relative of the actor has appeared yet to make a claim to his estate.

Mr. Stowell was one of the victims of a railroad accident that wiped out his section of a party of motion-picture men and scientists in a scientific expedition in the Congo.

Public Administrator Bryson yesterday filed a petition for letters of administration for the estate, which is valued at $17,000. The petitioner says that he knows of no relatives. It is understood, however, that Ella Rogers, of 202 South Winchester avenue, Chicago, is an aunt.

The estate consists of an insurance policy for $10,000, payable to the estate; household and personal effects, valued at $2000, and corporate stock valued at $5000. Mr. Stowell was leading man, opposite Dorothy Phillips of the Universal, and was directing his own company at the time of the accident.

CONSUL SENDS DETAILS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CAPE TOWN (Union of South Africa) Dec. 18.—Details of the casualties suffered by Americans in the railroad wreck at Elisabethville, in the Belgian Congo, in which Dr. Joseph Armstrong and William Stowell, both of Los Angeles, Cal., were killed and several others injured, were received from the British Consul at Elisabethville today. The party had been sent on an exploring expedition by the Smithsonian Institution and a motion-picture concern.

Dr. Armstrong died of a fractured skull on November 24, three hours after the wreck, and Stowell, a motion-picture operator, died two days later, according to the Consul's message. Both were buried at Elisabethville.

Pliny Horne, a photographer, also of Los Angeles, who suffered lacerations of the forehead, was reported to be suffering from amnesia (loss or impairment of memory) from the shock. His wounds were said to be healed. The party was said to be preparing to leave Elisabethville for Johannesburg.

CHARITY FUND AIDED BY OPTIMISTS' CLUB.

EIGHTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS RAISED BY MEMBERS AT JOLLY LUNCHEON.

Members of the Optimist Club who attended the weekly luncheon at Christopher's yesterday, were unable to decide last night whether the policemen, who were uninvited guests at the luncheon, were real "cops" or just ordinary folks in policemen's uniforms.

The club raised $1800 at the luncheon for the Big Brother fund for the poor, part of which came from a personal tax of $5 on each member. The rest came from raffling goods donated for the purpose by members of the club. That is where the police came in.

While the raffle was in progress two policemen "pinched" the men in charge of the raffle for violating a city ordinance. Nevertheless, after the usual procedure in such cases, the raffling was continued and a large sum realized.

FOR CAROL SINGING.

Plan Tried in East is to be Given Premier Here as School Benefit.

Carol singing on Christmas eve, for the benefit of the Los Angeles Music School Settlement, 252 South Avenue 18, will be started here for the first time this year, it was announced yesterday.

The plan of carol singing, "at the sign of the lighted candle," with money recompense for a worthy cause, has been tried in Boston, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities of the East, it is stated, and has been a success.

The aim of the Music School Settlement is to both give musical training to those who are unable to get it for lack of funds and to foster musical appreciation. Miss Margaret Goetz, 558116, and Miss Virginia E. Graeff, 20738, are among those in charge of arrangements for the carol singing.

CORONA GROWERS TO MAKE WAR ON REDS.

To discuss plans for fighting I.W.W. agitation, and the migration into the district near Corona of Red agitators, representatives of nine of the large citrus-fruit packing associations in that section met yesterday at Corona. On request of the packing associations Marshal Redans of Corona asked A. L. Manning, superintendent of criminal investigation for the Sheriff's office, and Deputies Couts and Bell, to aid the fruit growers in driving the radicals out of the district.

Marshal Redans reported that the activities of Deputies Couts and Bell in rounding up the I.W.W. resulted in a considerable migration to that district, and that the authorities there so far had been unable to cope with the situation.

The body is at the Alvarez and Blue undertaking establishment. The funeral will be held from the church of Our Lady of Loretta, Court street and Union avenue, tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be at the Calvary cemetery.

SOL LESSER PRODUCER.

WILL BUILD NEW STUDIO AND SIGN STARS.

By Grace Kingsley.

The latest film luminary to branch out as a producer is Sol Lesser. Not only is he to handle at least four films in the near future, but he will build a new studio in Hollywood, according to announcement made yesterday.

At present Mr. Lesser has two stars signed up, viz., George Beban and Juanita Kellerman. He is negotiating also with others, including the former kid actor, Ben Alexander, and Harry Green, of the Orpheum circuit, appearing at present in "George Washington Cohen." When it is expected, will be signed within a day or two.

Mr. Lesser's studio is to be built on the western end of Hollywood, according to present plans, and will be a modern structure with all improvements, up-to-date laboratories, etc.

Mae Normand to Return.

Mae Normand isn't going to remain and work in New York, after all. She has decided to return West, and Victor Schertzinger, who went East to direct her, is reported to be on his way home. Miss Normand remains in New York for the opening here coming week soon after. On arrival she will begin work on production of a famous story, the film rights of which have just been purchased for her, but concerning the identity of which Samuel Goldwyn has so far succeeded in keeping his lips tightly buttoned.

Mary Miles Minter Happy.

Mary Miles Minter is preparing for a very merry Christmas indeed. Not only will her grandmother, Mrs. Julia Blanche Miles, arrive here on the twenty-third to be ready for the stocking-hanging season at the Minter home, together with Miss Minter's secretary, Mrs. Charlotte Whitney, but there will also be present Miss Minter's god-daughter, aged one month. Mrs. Whitney's child.

Tom Moore as Santa Claus.

And speaking of Christmas, Tom Moore, Goldwyn star, intends having a big house party for his little daughter, Alice, at their Hollywood home, with the versatile Tom himself playing the role of Santa Claus, clad in red canton flannel and cotton whiskers.

National Announces.

Combing current literature for good stories for picturization is what the film companies are doing these days. The National Film Corporation of America is the latest organization to make announcement of the purchase of magazine stories to be put into the deathless celluloids. That concern states it will picturize a series of eight of the most popular magazine stories of 1919. The first of this series will be "Mary Minds Her Business," written by George Weston and now appearing in a popular magazine in serial form.

Capt. Tucker Engaged.

A notable addition to the Goldwyn forces has been made in the person of Capt. Richard Tucker, who came West in "Under Orders," and who was at once engaged and put under contract by the above-named company. Capt. Tucker doesn't wear his military title all the time, but has a right to, as he spent a year and a half in active service in France, going through five of the biggest battles in which American forces were engaged, including that of Chateau Thierry. His first appearance on the Goldwyn screen will be quite fittingly in the leading role of Mary Roberts Rinehart's "Dangerous Days."

Bushmans to Return.

Francis X. Bushman and Beverley Bayne are going to spend Christmas in Los Angeles. They will play the Coast cities and return here in time to eat plum pudding as prepared by Mrs. Alexandria.

Tommy Meighan Pleased.

Tommy Meighan, Lasky star, is going to have a regular Christmas this year. His wife, known professionally as Frances Ring, has come West to stay, deserting the footlights in favor of the firelight, and the pair are hunting for a happy home, which, when secured, will at once be decorated with holly berries and mistletoe, in preparation for a nice Yuletide party.

Domestic Notes.

Another famous pair who will hang up their stockings in Los Angeles this Christmastide are Conway Tearle and his wife, Adele Rowland. Mr. Tearle is playing opposite Clara Kimball Young in her present picture; his contract calls for $1700 a week, and who wouldn't have a merry Christmas on that?

Sounds Reasonable.

Ralph Wolfe, cousin of the famous Will Rogers, is acting and also drawing subtitle decorations for Bullseye. And they do say that though his name is Wolfe, he's a bear.

Balboa Studios Sold.

The Balboa Studios, assigned by the Horkheimer Brothers to the Board of Trade as trustees, have been sold to Messrs. McCauley & Hunt, who propose to rent space to various picture concerns, incorporating under the name of the International Film Company. About ten companies can be accommodated at Balboa, and at present five companies, including three of Bullseys, are working there. E. W. Welch is manager of the studio.

Nautical Item.

While in the flesh John Bowers is with us, in spirit he is sailing around the horn right now with his nifty yacht, which he is bringing on from New York.

Frank Lloyd's New One.

The tooth-wash smile of Frank Lloyd is wider than ever. He will make a picturization of that capital story, "Roads of Destiny," with Pauline Frederick and John Bowers in the leading roles.

Maurice Tourneur Busy.

Maurice Tourneur, member of the Big Six, officially known as the Associated Directors, is preparing to picturise Robert Louis Stevenson's "The Pavilion on the Links."

Will Rogers Breaks Record.

That frisky Will Rogers has made a swift trip to San Francisco in his big car, accompanied by his wife and four children. The lariat expert hit the high spots, spending only twelve hours and a half aboard his car. He says he could have made it in twelve, but the kids insisted on stopping for lunch.

New Basil King Story.

T. Hayes Hunter adjusted his horn-rimmed glasses yesterday and started work at Goldwyn studio on a film version of Basil King's famous story, "Earthbound." In the cast are Wyndham Standing, Mahlon Hamilton, Flora Ravelles and Lawson Butt.

"RIDGED STRAIGHT"—WITH SPECIAL ADDED ATTRACTIONS

Mrs. Billington's Ambition.

The ambition of Francella Billington, the feminine star of Eric Stroheim's "Blind Husbands," to show at the California Theater next week is to become a great pianist. Miss Billington was born in Dallas, Tex., but has spent most of her life in Los Angeles and Louisiana. She was educated in the Sacred Heart Convent here and received the finishing touches of her education abroad. She has been before the camera for five years, appearing in stock for D. W. Griffith and on the screen with William Russell.

WILL AID CAMPAIGN FOR AMERICANIZATION.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—All motion picture companies in the United States in conference with Secretary Lane yesterday, agreed to enter a peace drive for the Americanization of all who see motion pictures in this country. Everyone of the large film companies was represented and heartily agreed to participate in the programme of eliminating the radicals, without cost of any kind.

At a luncheon given by Secretary Lane, at which all the film men were present, Vice-President Marshall, Senator Kenyon and Congressman Fess, advised the film men and told of the great necessity of making all the film audiences in the country 100 per cent. American.

Tonight the representatives of the biggest film producers were present and gave testimony at a joint session of the Senate and House Committee on Education, on the plan of carrying the Americanization of all who see pictures into every village and hamlet of the United States.

SIX SESSIONS TODAY.

Better Community Conference to Start this Morning.

Six sessions of the first annual Better Community Conference will be held today, under the auspices of the University of California, southern branch, and the Chamber of Commerce. Nearly 5500 teachers of city and rural schools, here for the institute meetings, will attend, in addition to delegates from numerous commercial and civic bodies. There is no admission charge: The programme follows:

"Community Councils," Morosco Theater, 10 a.m. "Ex-Service Men and the Community," Trinity Hotel, 10 a.m. "Community Council," Morosco Theater, 2 p.m. "Community Betterment in Relation to Child Life," Y.M.C.A., 2 p.m. "Better Business," Chamber of Commerce, 2 p.m. "Making the School What It Should Be," Central Intermediate school auditorium, 2 p.m. The conference will be continued tomorrow with six meetings.

MRS. SANBORN DIES.

Services Today for Pioneer at Her Home in Hollywood.

Funeral services for Mrs. Georgiana de Frees Sanborn, pioneer Hollywood resident and wife of Dr. F. A. Sanborn, who died at her home, 4002 Sunset boulevard, on Wednesday, will be held today at 2 p.m., Dr. E. P. Ryland, of Hollywood Baptist Church, officiating.

Mrs. Sanborn was 77 years old and had taken an active part in public affairs here for many years. She was an active Hollywood club woman until a few years ago. The family came here more than thirty years ago and for a time resided at the corner of Ninth and Broadway, when that district was a popular residential section.

The surviving relatives are Dr. Sanborn, a retired physician; and three sons, Walter D. Sanborn and John D. Sanborn, of this city, and Frank A. Sanborn, of Mexico City.

OF WAR WITH POISON.

University Man Lectures on Gas in Clash with Huns.

America's accomplishments in gas warfare were interestingly discussed last night by Dr. Joel H. Hildebrand of the University of California, at a joint meeting of the local section of the American Chemical Society, and Southern California Science and Mathematics Association at the City Club.

Using motion pictures to illustrate his talk, Dr. Hildebrand took his audience to many battlefields, pointing out the many phases of the work and explained how the Hun's deadly mustard gas was rendered useless. He showed how the Yanks captured German mustard shell "duds," drilled holes in them, saved the poison for chemical analysis and destroyed the residue by sprinkling chloride of lime on it.

FATTY TO PLAY IN "THE ROUND-UP."

Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, famous laugh-producer, is to take a fling at the legitimate screen drama, according to announcement made yesterday by Jesse L. Lasky, first vice-president of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation.

The favorite of many a two-reel comedy is to play the heavyweight sheriff in "The Round-Up," a George H. Melford production for Paramount-Artcraft release. The picture will be produced at the Lasky studio and on location, and it is understood that Mabel Juliene Scott will have the leading feminine role. The screen adaptation of the popular stage play is expected to be even more impressive than the original.

NEW PICTURE CONTRACT.

The new contest has been arranged for Charles Chaplin's comedy, "A Day's Pleasure," and Henry Lehrman's feature, "A Twilight Baby," which starts at the Kinema Sunday by T. L. Tally. Mr. Tally wants to find out why his patrons like Charlie Chaplin's comedy better Henry Lehrman's, or why they like Lehrman's brand better than Chaplin's. He is offering as a first prize $50, as a second prize $30, and a third prize of $20, it is announced, and there will also be ten consolation awards of theater tickets. Six questions must be fully answered in the contest, it is stated. The conditions call for an answer by next Friday evening. The Pickford contest closed last night.

DOCTOR ARRESTED ON MAIL-FRAUD CHARGE.

OLD CASE, LAID OVER WHILE HE WAS INSANE, REVIVED; HE WELCOMES TRIAL.

Dr. Herman Silverman, 932 Van Nuys Building, was arrested yesterday on a bench warrant to answer a Federal indictment returned July 5, 1918, wherein he and "Dr." Clyde H. Young, now a Pacific Electric conductor were charged with using the mails to defraud. The accusation was based on their operation of what was known as the Los Angeles Wasserman Laboratory.

The case was ready for trial a year ago but Silverman was declared to be insane and he was committed to the State Hospital at Patton. He was discharged after five months. Yesterday he was arrested by U.S. Marshal Walton and furnished bond of $2000.

Later he gave out a statement that the arrest in 1918, coming after twenty-eight years of practice and more than twenty years of work in responsible positions, caused a mental and physical breakdown. On discharge from the Patton hospital, he declared, he demanded a trial for his vindication. "I am the victim of a conspiracy," he asserted, "and shall welcome a trial to establish that fact."

"SOCIETY WOMEN" IN JAIL AS SHOPLIFTERS.

WON'T GIVE NAMES, BECAUSE OF PROMINENT FRIENDS THEY SAY LIVE HERE.

Two fashionably-dressed women were arrested as shoplifters by Nick Harris detectives in a department store at Seventh and Broadway last night. The women denied the charge but refused to give their names saying that they would be ruined socially if their arrest were known. They were booked at the City Jail as "Jane Doe," 24 years old, and "Mary Roe," 46 years old. They were held on suspicion of grand larceny.

A kodak, a pair of slippers, some cosmetics and some handkerchiefs, pilfered from the counters of the department store, were found in a large shopping bag carried by "Mary Roe" at the time of her arrest, the detectives charged. She said she has a 14-year-old daughter here. "Jane Doe" said she has no relatives in this city.

Detectives stated that when first arrested, "Mary Roe" said that she was the sister of the "Peruvian Consul," but later she denied this.

ST. DENIS DANCERS ENTER A NEW FIELD.

PLEASE IN FIRST PROGRAMME CENTERING ON MUSIC VISUALIZATION.

Ruth St. Denis successfully entered a different field of production Wednesday night when she presented her concert dancers in a programme of music visualising, with Ellis Rhodes, tenor, at the Little Theater. The audience warmly received an offering that was in some important respects a departure from established tradition.

The distinguishing feature was the emphasis placed on the music, the studiousness with which everything that might powerfully draw attention from it was avoided. Costumes, staging and choreography were all designed with the deliberate intent, so it is said, of aiding, vivifying and amplifying, but never of drawing a major share of attention from the effect secured by sound. Only a music lover might, perhaps, enjoy such a programme to the full, and yet the dancing was in itself satisfying and at times notable.

There is particular merit in the groupings and in the tableau effects. They are, however, marked by an atmosphere of spaciousness that on a large stage might create an impression of coldness which the rather severe hangings employed, the pale lights often used and the airiness of the costumes would only emphasize.

The indictment of untrained legs, sometimes brought against dancers of the classic school, will not hold in the case of Miss St. Denis's dancers. Excellent elevation, graceful feet and, at times, difficult feats involving the legs marked much of the dancing.

A large share of the honors went to Pauline Lawrence, at the piano, and to Mr. Rhodes.

RECOVER LOOT AFTER ARREST IN BURGLARY.

With a record of eight burglaries Edward D. Baker, an electrician, 25 years old, was arrested at Second street and Broadway by Detective Sergeants Wood and Murphy last night. Baker confessed to burglarizing the residence of G. E. Candee, 253 Ellenwood drive, Eagle Rock City, on December 6, of $300 worth of silverware and jewelry, according to Wood and Murphy.

The officers said they recovered $2500 worth of loot from information given by Baker. Baker said that he meant well but had played in hard luck.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—An unexpected reversal in British exchange and the attitude assumed by organized labor in connection with the return of the railroads, caused today's dull stock market to yield some of the ground gained during the previous session.

The decline in bills on London, which fell about 13 cents below yesterday's rally, was attributed in some quarters to the decision of the British court removing the ban on imports into England.

Rails, especially low grade issues, were depressed one to five points, but some of this loss was recovered later.

Call loans ruled at 6 per cent., the lowest rate of the week.

The stock market became almost stagnant after the first hour, with alternate rallies and declines from the irregular opening. Oils, motors and steels provided the chief elements of uncertainty.

Metals and sugars were among the few sustaining features, the former hardening as a result of better trade prospects, while sugars strengthened on opposition in the Senate to the extension of government control. Sales amounted to 700,000 shares.

The feature of the bond market was the activity of convertible or speculative railway issues, mostly at moderate concessions, several high grade industrials also easing fractionally. Liberty Bonds also shaded with several of the international war issues. Total sales, par value, aggregated $23,450,000.

Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Mercantile paper unchanged. Time loans strong; unchanged. Call money easy; high 6; low 5; ruling rate 6; closing bid 5; offered at 6; last loan 5.

Bar silver $1.34. Mexican dollars, unchanged.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Bar silver, 78 3-8d per ounce. Money unchanged.

gence Department of the United States Army. Soon after the nuptials he disappeared and is now being sought by the Federal authorities for impersonating an officer. His bride learned of the deception and departed from her home the next day, leaving a note in which she said she intended to commit suicide because of her humiliation, according to the police, who instituted a State-wide search for the missing woman.

Mrs. McMunn apparently waded into the ocean and was drowned.

Mrs. Muriel McMunn.

No bullet wounds, cuts, or other marks which would tend to show that she was murdered, were found on her body, it was stated. The incoming tide washed the corpse to the shore where it was imprisoned among the rocks.

No trace of Harry McMunn has been found yet, the police say.

Mrs. McMunn was well known here. For more than six years she was an employee of the Western Union and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company in this city. It was at the telegraph office that the girl first met McMunn, or Munson, as he called himself then. The man represented himself as a Federal investigator, and carried cards which read: "Harry W. Munson, Auditor-Investigator, A. I. Bureau, Washington, D. C., Western Division, San Francisco."

The couple were married the day before Thanksgiving and rented a small cottage in Pasadena. Shortly after the end of the war, McMunn brought his bride to the Van Nuys Hotel, for a short visit to Los Angeles, he said, and while she waited for him to return the first day, he went back to Pasadena, packed all his personal belongings, and left. The girl waited for another day, and then went home, discovering her position.

and that powder marks depended on the kind of powder used. Detective Davidson admitted that it was difficult to determine by the examination of any revolver as to the exact time it had last been fired, though he said that the revolver surrendered, by New had, in his opinion been recently discharged.

Detective Davidson in his direct testimony told of hearing a pounding on the desk or counter at police headquarters in the early morning of July 5 and of going to the desk, of finding a young man, (New) who handed over a revolver in a holster. Davidson then told of going to the street and finding Freda Lesser's body in a Ford sedan which was parked at the curb.

BERGER IS RE-ELECTED

Ousted Socialist is Again Winner.

Wisconsin Sends Back to Congress Man Who was Denied a Seat.

Is Out on Bail Under a Conviction for Disloyalty During the War.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 19.—Victor L. Berger, Socialist, to... was re-elected to Congress from the Fifth Wisconsin Dis... trict, having defeated Henry H. Bodenstab, Republican, running as a fusion candidate, by 4800 votes.

Berger's total vote was 24,167 and Bodenstab's 19,561. The returns indicate approximately 5000 voters did not go to the polls.

Should the House of Representatives again refuse to seat Berger, there will be a vacant chair as far as the Fifth Wisconsin District is concerned until the regular election in 1920, as Gov. Phillipp announced today he would not call another special election.

"I do not believe in spending any of the people's money that way," he said.

Berger made this statement: "While my election may undoubtedly be characterized as a victory of a revolutionary act, in view of opposition by the entire capitalistic press not only of Milwaukee and Wisconsin but of the country, yet it cannot exactly be called a victory of the Socialist party.

"The Socialist party simply took the lead and furnished the advance guard and foremost champions.

"As a matter of fact, my re-election is simply the first sign of the awakening of genuine democracy in this country since the days of the struggle for the emancipation of the black race.

"I don't know whether the House will seat me, and I care little. If only the continued fight for my seat will furnish the occasion to awaken the common people of the United States, especially the working class, to a realization of the great dangers before us and the immense duties that we must fulfill if modern civilization is to preserve or even to survive.

DEMOCRACY "VINDICATED."

"Just as to the voters of the Fifth district I can only say: 'Well done. The eyes of the world are upon you. You have vindicated one of the basic principles of modern democracy—representative government.'"

Henry H. Bodenstab, Republican candidate whom Berger defeated, said:

"I am indeed grateful to my many friends who put up the best fight they knew how for a worthy cause, and I feel a majority of the voters of the Fifth District have been misled by a false propaganda. I am ready to continue in the fight for the welfare of the community of these former Socialist and Bolshevik editors, and I call upon the good loyal citizens of Milwaukee to remain steadfast in their faith in their country and her institutions."

LIQUOR MEN

Lack of Cargo Space Stores Dead Lo...

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Distillers are now looking to export millions of gallons from Philadelphia and other eastern ports because of the prohibition amendment becomes effective. The difficulty of getting freight and cargo space, they declare that it is extremely doubtful whether cargo space can be obtained for more than a relatively small percentage of the liquor offered for export, although some have announced a willingness to give preference to liquor orders to help distillers and get out of their difficulties.

Export experts have been increasingly busy for many months, but the movement is said to have been in October, the latest month for which detailed statistics are available, when the value of the exported distilled alcohol, spirituous liquors reached $1,307,279, compared with only $389,774 during the same period last year.

The export trade to Cuba is said to be smaller than generally supposed, it is pointed out that the lower duty on liquor in that country, compared with the fact that

CALOMEL ROBBED OF ITS NAU...

Medicinal Virtues Retained—Improved—Unobjectionable Qualities Remain—Sickening Qualities Removed—New Tablet Called "Calotabs."

The latest triumph of pharmacy is a "discovery" of a mineral tablet known to the trade as "Calotabs." Calomel is generally used of all drugs in this entire world, its popularity—perfect and unquestioned—but those objectionable qualities have heretofore limited its use.

In billiousness, constipation, indigestion, and in a general way to liver, stomach and bowels, calomel was the quickest remedy, but its use was rejected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the most pleasant of medicines to take. One tablet on the tongue at bedtime with a swallow of water, and all. No taste, no grittiness, no salts. A good night's rest, the next morning a clear head, fine, with a good appetite. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in sealed packages, price 35 cents. You cannot buy them, but you will find the name on every package with Calotabs.
